LTNX artes Miguel Gonzales -

(<https://www.ltnxartes.com/>)

LTNX artes is an online collection of Latino/a/x culture, tradition, and heritage preserving our cultural identity from the Pacific Northwest and connect with the larger Latinx community. This collective effort is the only all Latinx art gallery from eastern Washington.

Encompassing the visual, literature, oral tradition, music, dance, acting, film, multimedia, culinary, textile, and other diverse creative mediums for preservation of the past and evolution towards the future as a unified Latino/a/x community.

LTNX artes is composed of Latinx artists of Latin American descent whose creative expression is formed by a lived U.S. experience. This often-debated term encompasses a heterogeneous group of people who often portray notions of biculturalism, biliteracy, bilingualism, and whose work often illustrates shifting identities rooted across the U.S.

Latinx is an inclusive term of considering non-binary people within the gender binary of the Spanish language, as an alternative to the term Latino/a. In the visual arts, LTNX artes aims to enhance the visibility of the awareness of the evolving cultural development, pride in heritage, multicultural collaboration in public exhibitions, public art spaces, private, and institutional collections and academia. LTNX artes is for the celebration, and exploration of Latinx diversity within Spokane.

Miguel Gonzales is the curator, principal artist, and owner of LTNX artes. Email ltnxartes@gmail.com or call 509.598.7722 to join or support.

2020 Census - The Civic Promotor / Trusted Messenger Program

The Census 2020 is coming up and we want to make sure everyone is counted. We have partner up with the Washington Census Alliance for the re-granting program of Trusted Messengers. This program will pay volunteers $1600 for 80 hours of census outreach at their own pace from now to April/May. This is great for folks who are connected in the community and they talk to folks about the importance of the census. This is great for students who are involved in clubs. Do you know 20 people? We want you to have 20 conversations about the census, attend a few meetings in February-March and then follow up in May by phone to the 20 households you had conversations with. This can be in English or Spanish. I have attached the information about the program; please let Fernanda Mazcot at fernanda.mazcot@ppgwni.org if you have any questions. Or if you know anyone who is interested in earning a little cash please let them know about this program and to contact me.

We are also looking for folks in Adams county (Othello) (Ritzville) or someone who has connections to communities and would like to do outreach to those towns. And possibly Chelan County as well (Wenatchee)
